Life on Adam's Street

I want to start out with an apology for the troubles anyone has endured while trying to read the May newsletter or access information on the club website. The club is undergoing changes to our website and the systems supporting it. This transition created some unforeseen challenges which we are sorry for. Thank you for your patience and diligence in communicating the challenges you have faced.

These changes are being implemented after discussions with Sheri Gardapee who has been our Web Architect for many years. She has done an outstanding job of building our web presence and creating electronic filing systems that has increased our exposure and effectiveness. To keep up with the changing needs of our club and to allow her time to focus on her career, a decision was made to pursue a different solution. Our website and newsletters will have a new look, yet contain the information you have come to depend upon, and with time, offer additional services not available in the past. Please make sure to thank Sheri for her contributions as she has truly dedicated an immense amount of time over the years. Moving forward, Frank Wickham has agreed to oversee our website due to his experience in I.T. related services. He is documenting problems as they are identified, and working diligently to resolve them although it may take some time.

The Board and I continue to meet regularly using teleconference technology where we are mindful of Covid-19 and the uncertain future. We are optimistic that we will be able to ski again, and working on another great ski season with a great variety of Midwest options and of course our pinnacle trip to Big Sky in March 2021. In this issue you will see we are moving forward with summer events to help you get your social on!

The newsletter and eblasts will continue to be your best source of new information on trip release dates, trip details, events, registrations, etc. We are committed to getting information to you as timely as possible through these methods and ask for your continued cooperation, especially if it is a communication with short notice. This means that if you have not done so, make sure to get your club registration submitted today, so that you can be kept in the communication loop!

Ski you soon,
Adam
