Life on Adam's Street

It's July already? Wow this is probably the fastest summer of my life. As usual, there is not much to report at this time of year as we are still finalizing all our next season trips. We expect to reach those decisions here this month so hopefully August and September will be more informative!

I did want to share something I received over email, which some of our members may be interested in. Tom Nockerts is a member of the National Ski Patrol, patrolling at Brule in Upper Michigan. He contacted me to share they will be starting a training class for new members on Mondays starting August 2nd, 2021 in Green Bay.

This will be open to anyone interested in becoming a patroller for any hill, not just Brule. Interested individuals should contact Tom to sign up. His information is available below.

Not a bike rider. All tickets are picked up at Voyager Park by 5:00 p.m. so you can get in the gate. Please meet us at Ledgestone Vineyards Winery-

6381 State Highway 57 Greenleaf, WI 54126 1-920-532-4384.

Washington Island Bike Ride 2021

This year was my lucky year, not only was the weather great but so was the turnout. There were 32 people that joined Shelly and I on the ride. This was such a great turnout! I had 5 stops planned and I think most people were able to see all of the locations. Several people missed the second turn, but most of them caught up with the group later.

After the ride a smaller group of us climbed the new Eagle Tower at Peninsula State Park.

All in all, this was a great outing, the weather was perfect (not always the case this early in the season on Washington Island) and the group was fantastic. We are looking forward to our next Spring adventure. Thank you everyone for coming along!
