Life on Adam's Street

Hello skiers, friends, and family! It's August and this is one of our most jam-packed editions in a while. Before you turn the page like Bob Seeger, let me just say a few quick words.

- trips are finalized and approved which you can read about today. We have found most trips had a price increase due to higher rates being charged than in the past. We are trying hard to keep them as low as possible and stay focused on returning to as close to the old ways. These will continue to be full packages include lodging, ground/air packages and lift tickets. Please plan to ski with us again this year on this comeback tour.
- Brian Mudd, Treasurer has announced his retirement from the Board. His term ends in May. We are actively soliciting his replacement and ask that someone raise their hand! Brian volunteered to begin training someone now, in advance of his vacancy. Please reach out to Brian or myself to talk more.
- Brian Fowle, VP is retiring at the end of this term, which ends in May. Folks ready or interested in this important, key role should reach out to him or myself.
- Our club picnic returns in August being organized by your Social chair. She has more details later in this letter.
- Dick Wortiska Service Award is still open for nominations and will be awarded at our Fall Banquet. To recognize a member for this prestigious award, see Tom Piette.
- Get your membership registrations in!

I feel as though I missed something here, which I'm sure will come to me the day you read this. So, I guess all I can say in my best Porkie the Pig voice: that's all folks!

Ski you later,
Adam

Gelandesprung's western trip to Big Sky will be from January 29, 2022 to February 5, 2022. At present, we have 10 condos rented for 60 people and two rooms in the Huntley Lodge for four people.

The base price for the trip in 2021 was $1,720. The price is likely to be about $200 more in January 2022. The two factors for that are the high cost of airfare and the higher cost for lift tickets. The Huntley Lodge will add about $600 to the base cost for people that choose the hotel option.

We will not know the final price for the trip until as late as September due to questions regarding airfare cost. We will plan to publish a good estimate of the trip cost in the September newsletter.

The final cost will be determined no later than the end of September and the trip sign-up will begin at the fall banquet in October. Finally, if you know you want to stay in the Huntley Lodge, please send an email to me to state your intentions. If there are more than four interested people, I will ask to reserve another room or two.

An appeal for help at the 2021 Green Bay Farmer's Market

Being present at events to recruit new members for the Gelandesprung Ski Club is one of the main responsibilities of the marketing chair. These events include the Green Bay Farmers Market, Zeller's Ski and Board Swap, and the Warren Miller film event.

Claudia is respectfully asking for help (one person each day for the entire shift or 2 people splitting the shift) at the Farmer's Market Events.

Dates are:

Wednesday, September 22 from 3-7 pm. Set up starts at 2 pm.

Saturday, October 2 from 7-noon. Set up starts at 6 am.

Please let Claudia know if you are available to help for all or part of either date.

The club will also need to provide a 10x10 foot tent, 25 lb. weights and a table. Let Claudia know if you have either, and would be willing to let the club borrow. Claudia will bring chairs.

If you are interested in lending a hand please contact Claudia at czelsner@sbcglobal.net.

Thank you

Save the date!

Gelandesprung Ski Club Summer Bike Ride

Ledgestone Vineyards Winery

Thursday-July 15th

Bike riders met at Voyager Park @ 4:30. The riders set out on the bike trail to the winery. Members also joined us at the Ledgestone Vineyards Winery by way of car and brought chairs to share. The music was wonderful and the wine tasted great!.

A beautiful evening sunset was enjoyed by all. The bike riders had a pleasant bike ride back to Voyager park.

Thank you Rita Delveaux for organizing this event!
