Life on Adam's Street

Happy Friday post snowpocalypse 2023!

I trust that you are all well and have unburied yourself from the storm. As for me, I rode it out in Milwaukee while waiting for a flight to Florida for work. It was really just rain and some ice where I was.

Now, I'm at my gate, waiting to board, yet, not without my obligatory preflight Starbucks. While I wait, I decided it was an opportune time to write you this month's article.

As I write this we have wrapped up a new trip to Minnesota. I had a phone call with Frank while on their way out. Everyone was having a great time. Up next is our much-anticipated Utah trip with nothing but giddy anticipation from me. Did I mention that Tuesday of the trip will be my bday? Looking forward to skiing with you all!

The Spring banquet is around the corner and I would like to remind you to submit an RSVP! During this year's event, we will elect new Board Member positions where nominations are open for President, Social and Secretary. Currently, Tom Piette will run for President, and Mark Heintzkill for Social. We don't have any takers yet for Secretary. Please speak with a Board member about your interest in stepping up. We will also award the annual Dick Wortiska Service Award to our most deserving member(s) who consistently go the extra mile to keep our club running.

Be sure to read further into this issue for more details on anything I referred to in this issue.

As I typed the last paragraph, my boarding call came on. Time to scoot!

Ski ya VERY soon!

Adam

Afton Alps and Welch Village Trip

The trip started out with the threat of a huge snowstorm (which became a reality). Day one was at Afton Alps where everyone enjoyed themselves. The resort was very large with plenty of chair lifts, terrain, and no lift lines.

The cross-country skiers were able to use Scot Wederquist's vehicle to get to Afton State Park in order to ski the trails there (thank you Scot!). On day two, the cross-country skiers were able to enjoy the St. Croix Regional Park trails while the down-hill skiers tore up Welch Village.

The second day brought us to Welch Village with five inches of fresh snow on the ground. The hill was a bit more challenging than Afton Alps, but because of the fresh snow, everyone was able to enjoy themselves. Unfortunately, we had to cut the day short because of the snowstorm, so we headed out at 2:30 pm instead of 4:30 pm.

On the way back, we did our Obtuse nominations and awards. Rita Delveaux nominated Amy Zipp for always being left-behind and forgotten about (which happened a couple of times on the hill). Ron Quick nominated Tom Piette for spilling a perfectly good Bloody Mary all over himself and on the floor, right after bragging that he never spills on himself. But the winner and the funniest one of all was nominated by Heidi Janowski. She nominated John Zipp (yes, Amy's spouse) for getting his jeans stuck to his bus seat. What made it so funny was Amy's head bobbing up and down trying to help him get unstuck and nobody could quite figure out what was really 'going on' in those seats.

All was going well until the bus broke down just outside of Wausau. Luckily, Lamers had a bus depot in Wausau and our bus driver was able to limp us along until we got there. We exchanged buses and continued on our way. Because of the weather and the bus delay, we didn't get back to Green Bay until close to 9:30 pm. Despite all of the items outside of our control, everyone had a really great time. We are thankful to everyone that joined us on this trip.

Hope to 'ski' you next time,
Frank and Scot

The Gelandesprung newsletter has one available advertising space. The cost is $75 dollars per year for 12 issues that gets emailed out to over 100 club members and 50 other individuals or organizations.

Claudia has graciously offered to follow up with anyone that you think may be interested in utilizing this advertising space.

All you have to do is provide her with contact information and she will follow-up on the club's behalf.

Thank you,

GELANDEBUCKS

Does the club still offer these? Is it still $10 per new member! Can I use it towards my favorite hobby, Skiing! The answer to all these questions is YES! If you recruit someone new to join the club you will receive a $10 certificate for each person that signs up! That $10 can be put towards any ski trip, banquet or other club function as you see fit. So get out there, get recruiting and sign up some new members! Gelände'Bucks CANNOT be used for purchases from "Always in Stitches", our vendor for duffel bags, caps and jackets.
